NACM Northwest offers discounted pricing to customers providing monthly credit experience for use in the credit reporting database, subject to the following provisions:

- Contributed data will be used in NACM Northwest's credit reporting database and in the publishing of credit and industry group reports provided to NACM Northwest customers.
- Data may be shared reciprocally with more than fifteen other NACM Affiliates. Data will not be shared outside the NACM network without the customer's specific approval (see below).
- Prices charged to a customer for certain services are subject to the customer's status as "contributor" or "noncontributor" which shall be determined at NACM Northwest's sole discretion.
- The contributed data may be used for any lawful purpose, including statistical analysis and the creation of direct-marketing lists.
- The identity of the contributor will not be included in published credit reports.
- The unique industry group member number of the contributor may be included in industry credit group reports.
- At NACM Northwest's request, the contributor will verify the accuracy of contributed data.
- The contributor understands that NACM Northwest will use all reasonable efforts to maintain the security of contributed data and any authorized transfers.
- If the information furnished by a contributor should be lost or destroyed, the resulting liability will be limited to restoring the information from NACM Northwest backup records.
