

Credit Law for the Trade Creditor

Tuesdays from 3:00 - 6:00 p.m.
September 13 – November 15, 2022

REGISTRATION CLOSES ON SEPTEMBER 14TH

Cost Per Class -

Members: $425.00 + Cost of textbook and shipping

Nonmembers: $625.00 + Cost of textbook and shipping

Textbook Cost: $325 + Cost of Shipping
(Same Book as Business Law)

Instructor: Rod Wheeland, CCE/CAE

Location: Webinar (Online)

This 10-week course provides a review of the fundamentals of the American legal system and various aspects of Federal and State laws and regulations as they affect the trade creditor. Upon successful completion of this course, the student will understand the legal environment of business, legal forms of business organization, the Federal antitrust laws, the Consumer Credit Protection Act, agent responsibilities and liabilities, payment methods and processing, negotiable instruments, security interests in personal and real property, other forms of risk mitigation, insolvency and the Bankruptcy Code, and the use of these legal rights and responsibilities to maximize sales and minimize delinquency and bad debts.

The Credit Law class meets one of the qualifying requirements for the Credit Business Fellow (CBF) designation of NACM.

Scholarship support for this offering may be available. When registering, please ask Shawna for more details.

Rod Wheeland, CCE/CAE

Rod Wheeland, CCE served as the senior executive of NACM Commercial Services and predecessor companies for twenty-three years. He has worked in and around trade credit for four decades, and before coming to NACM in 1995, he was Corporate Credit Manager for Pendleton. Rod served for seven years on the NACM Commercial Services Board of Directors, which he chaired in 1991-92. He chaired the National Presidents Credit Council (Riemer), an association of present and past presidents of eighty national industry credit groups, and he's a past chairman of the NACM Affiliate Secretarial Council, which represents NACM Affiliates on the NACM National Board of Directors. Rod has a master's degree from York University in Toronto, a bachelor's degree from Eastern Washington University in Spokane, and achieved CCE certification in 1991 and the CAE in 2007.

This class is LIVE & REMOTE from your computer!

To register for NACM Commercial Services events/classes or for questions, contact:
Shawna Kelly at 971.230.1202 or skelly@nacmcs.org.

To register online go to <http://www.nacmcs.org/events/>

Please note: Cancellations will be accepted for full refund no later than five working days prior to event—substitute attendees accepted up to day of event.